Good News Reflection: Are you dissatisfied with anyone?

The readings for this Sunday make me thirsty and hungry! Can we go out to dinner after Mass?

As we say in the responsorial Psalm, "The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs." Yet, despite knowing this, we think we never have enough. We are not content with what we have.

Even when things go well, we're not fully satisfied. We want more. Especially in relationships. We feeling like we're starving for more affection. We crave more attention. Our guts grumble over not getting enough concern and support and approval from those who should give it to us.

Every person in our lives has been called by God to be a provider of his love and concern for us. But no one loves us fully and perfectly, and some totally reject this calling. If because of this we live in a state of frustration and anger or cynicism or self-protective isolationism, we're always hungry.

When we choose instead to forgive the imperfect people and turn to Jesus, he miraculously multiplies a little into a lot. By keeping our eyes on Jesus rather than on those who fail to love us fully, his love for us fills our hearts to overflowing.

Feeling dissatisfied is a sign that Jesus is trying to get our attention; there's something he wants to give us that we're not yet open to receive. Our problem is: How is Jesus going to give us what we need if we can't see him and feel touched by him?

To feel satisfied by an invisible God, we have to stay closely connected to him in prayer and in the Christian community that he's given us. We have to pay attention to what he's doing and through whom he's chosen to do it. That means getting more involved and expecting the unexpected!

Questions for Personal Reflection: What are you hungry for? Who's not giving you enough of what you need? How can you find other ways of receiving this, with the help of God?

Prayer for the Spiritual Act of Communion for those shut in at home and unable to receive communion:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

We would like to remind you the dispensation from attending the Sunday Eucharist is still in effect by our Archbishop

Congratulations and prayers to
Ron and Gloria Miller, who celebrated their 56th
Wedding Anniversary in July, 2020.

Readings for August 8 & 9
19th Sunday in Ordinary Time
1 Kings 19.9, 11-13
Romans 9.1-5
Matthew 14.22-33

Thanks for your Patience: The seating plan we have implemented at this time is following the government's guidelines for Covid 19 so we can follow the guidelines for both social distancing and sanitizing before being occupied again. Of course individual couples and families are allowed to sit together. The problem is we are directed to arrange up to 5 groups of 30 people with 5 meters between each group. Our main objective is to keep everyone safe since our prayers have been answered and we are allowed to gather and receive the Eucharist again. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we try to keep up to the ever changing rules and please thank our volunteers for helping us get through these trying times.

Theology of Stewardship:

All that we have and all that we are gifts from God-our time, our talent and skills, our resources and possessions, and especially the gift of life itself.

God gave us these gifts unconditionally out of love.

God did not intend, however, that we be the OWNERS of these gifts, using them for ourselves or hoarding them or ignoring them by hiding them away ("under a bushel basket").

God's purpose was that we would be good stewards, managers, or caretakers of these gifts by using them generously and wisely for building the Kingdom of God.

God's very purpose of our lives is to use our unique set of gifts for loving and serving him and our neighbor.

God desires that we FREELY choose to use our gifts this way and that our motives be love, gratitude, and justice, as opposed to guilt and fear--obligation or duty.

God promised many blessings for those who share generously and gratefully their gifts as He asked. These blessings may include happiness and peace and a sense of justice, but most certainly eternal life and God's care and protection.

We are in need of new Hospitality ministers for Saturday, 5 PM masses. Please contact the office if you have time to share the gifts God gave you.

Prayer Shawls Do you know of someone who would be comforted by a prayer shawl? Please submit their name to the parish office. If you would like to knit a prayer shawl we have a large supply of wool as well as patterns for the shawls: please stop by the office to pick up supplies.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit:

August 2, 2020 - 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Jesus said to them, ‘There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves’.” (Matthew 14:16)

This is what Jesus said right before he fed the five thousand men. How often do we really place our trust in Jesus when the situation looks grim? With Jesus, no gift is too small or insignificant when offered with love. But, we have to do our part. We should trust that Jesus will provide all that we need. We need to believe that Jesus has a better plan in store for us.

Describe a time when God met your needs in an unexpected way. Who did you expect to get it from, and how did it happen that you received it another way? Did you receive more -- or less -- than what you had wanted? Was it satisfying?
