Welcome Visitors & New Parish Members!

Our Parish family warmly welcomes new members. Please fill out a new parishioner form at your earliest convenience. The forms are located on the table in the foyer! As well, if any parishioners have changed information regarding their address, phone number, etc., please let the parish office know!

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 29th & 30th, 2022

When others judge us wrongly:

Take a close look at this Sunday's Gospel story. Jesus has just finished reading the scripture that we heard on the previous Sunday ("The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor," etc.). He tells the people in the synagogue that this scripture is now being fulfilled through him, and they all speak highly of him. But by the end of this scripture, they're furious with him.

What changed their attitude? Their awe turned into confusion when they remembered, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" Unlike those who would meet Jesus for the first time in later chapters of the story, these people had experiences with Jesus the toddler who fell when learning to walk, Jesus the teenager who bled from mistakes made while learning the carpentry trade from his father, Jesus the young man who wept at his father's funeral.

Their attitude changed when they stopped listening with their spirits and started listening with their pre-conceived notions. This disconnect from the divine then stirred up their emotions.

Think of how people react when you confuse them by doing or saying something out of character, that is, out of the character that they expect from you. If you're perceived as too young or too old to do what you are in fact capable of doing, or if your education level doesn't include a formal degree that proves that you know what you do already know, or if you don't tell people what they want to hear, their surprise turns into confusion that triggers an emotional response against you.

We expect them to believe us and trust us, and when they don't, our surprise turns into confusion that triggers an emotional response against them. But how did Jesus handle it when they treated him this way? He calmly spoke a truth that was inspired by the Holy Spirit. Did he have an emotional reaction? Sure! He was human like us; we were all created by the Father to have emotions. The problem is not in the emotions; the problem occurs when we listen through our emotions instead of our spiritual connection to the Holy Spirit.

Community Hot Meal Information

As some folks may not be aware of what the Community Hot Meal is all about here is some information: Our church has joined with 6 other churches in Weyburn to prepare and package meals for those less fortunate in our community. Some of the churches lack manpower to prepare the meals so they assist in packaging the meals. Our church takes its turn once per month on the second Sunday. We have two more turns, Feb. 13th and Mar. 13th. Approximately 85 meals are delivered each time. I put out the call in the bulletin for pots of soup to be made as well as buns and cookies. Generous volunteers in our church supply me with the needed food. The food is delivered to Knox Hall on the designated Sunday afternoon by 4:30pm. Once all the food has arrived the soup is dished out into 24 oz Styrofoam containers. Jane and John Smith provide the names and amount of meals needed per order and our workers place soup, buns and cookies in the brown paper bag. A label is attached with the name of the client and drivers deliver the meals around town. The delivery time is between 5 – 5:30 pm. The process is very smooth and in no time the meals are all packaged and delivered while still hot. If you know of someone who could benefit from a meal please contact John Smith at 306-891-4123. He will make contact.

Here is what is required for our next session on Feb. 13th (thank you to the volunteers who have already stepped forward with pots of soup and buns): 5 pots of soup, 3 dozen buns (2 per Ziploc bag), 12 dozen cookies (2 per Ziploc bag). If you know you can provide food for Feb. 13th please contact Wendy Pitre as soon as possible at 306-861-3473.

Thank you so much to those who have previously donated food! It is greatly appreciated!

Readings for February 5th & 6th, 2022:

Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8
1 Corinthians 15:1-11
Luke 5:1-11

God of Love and Hope, be with us as we ask for your blessing on those who are in need of our prayers: Rita Wanner, Becky Waite, Carol Reeve, Margaret Briltz, Linda Kot, Owen Ashworth, Kristofer Sotropa, and all those facing an illness or any of life's struggles.

Our condolences to the family and friends of Nathan Kopec. The thoughts and prayers of your church family are with you.

Spiritual Adult Faith Formation Movie Month:

The Spiritual and Faith Formation Committee is hosting 1 more consecutive movie nights on Saturdays in January. Join us at the church as we explore and enjoy our Catholic faith through film.

For Greater Glory. Jan 29, 7pm.

An epic war drama based on the true events of the Cristero rebellion in 1920's Mexico. When an aggressively atheistic President takes power in Mexico he attempts to exterminate Catholicism by closing churches, exiling priests, intimidation and murder. Many of the Catholic faithful feel they have no choice but to take up arms in defense of their faith and freedom. Rated PG-13.

The Knights of Columbus will praying the Rosary, in honour of Mary on Sunday, January, 30th (Fifth Sunday) at 2:30pm. They invite everyone to join them in honour of Our Blessed Mother.

Marriage – Celebrate and Learn! Join the Spiritual Faith Formation Committee for an evening of celebrating and learning more about marriage. We'll be watching a series of videos that will explain what the Catholic Church teaches about marriage, with discussion and fellowship afterwards. Saturday, February 26th, 7:00pm in the Church basement. Everyone welcome.

Baptism Preparation Classes are scheduled for February 12th & March 12th. Please call the office to register for the date that works best for you.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: 4th Sunday of Ordinary Time

"Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous..." (1 Corinthians 13:4)

Do you get jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given to you? Are you pompous? Do you acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these things. Pray for more humility. Humility helps us become less "self-centered" and become more "God-centered" for the sake of others.

Engaged Encounter Weekend:

Engaged Encounter Weekend, scheduled for February 11th to February 13th, 2022 is a unique experience where couples about to be engaged or who are engaged receive witnessing from two married couples who provide an inside look at married life.

It is a weekend totally dedicated to the engaged couple's future married life.

Father Abello is a priest on that weekend and is happy to answer questions you may have. He can be reached at 306-885-2032.

Welcome to our Parish Library!

Our Parish is blessed to have a very well stocked library and is open to all parishioners. Our library has books on apologetics, theology, biblical commentary, Catholic living, Church history, the saints and more, at all reading levels. It also has a selection of DVDs including documentaries on the faith and hit films with Catholic content. There is even a small selection of novels and children's materials. All items circulate with a simple sign out sheet, located on the library cart near the front doors of the church. To find the library, go through the Slezak room at the rear of the church and follow the library sign to the right. Pro libris!

Prayer Shawl Ministry – We have a beautiful assortment of prayer shawls that have been lovingly made by members of our parish. Prayer shawls are meant to be given to others to comfort them in times of pain, loss, stress, healing; or simply to be a symbol of prayers and love for anything else that may be happening in the recipient's life. If you would like to choose a prayer shawl to give to a loved one, please come see us at the parish office.

Pope Francis and the Bishops from all over the world are using synods as a tool to gather the thoughts and opinions of laity as to what our church is and what we need to do going forward. Canadian Bishops have asked that each parish gather this information to forward to the CCB and then to the Vatican. We need to LISTEN to others, LEARN from others, and then LEAD as a result of that listening and learning.

St. Vincent de Paul will be hosting a Synod meeting on February 19, 2022, at 10am-12pm at McKenna Upper Hall where Father Francis and Pat Wolensky will guide us through what Synod means. We will be gathering with our Deaneries and Parish Councils at the local level to begin this process as we "Walk together to follow Christ". Lunch will be available from 12-1pm. From 1pm-3pm, we will meet with the Archdiocese Pastoral Support Team to go over the draft of the new Parish Pastoral Council Guidelines. Please call the office to register@ 306-842-2129. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.

"Bible Corner" - Revelation V – Two Modes of Transmission

Most Catholics would know that God's Revelation has two modes of transmission: Scripture & Tradition (CCC#82). However, there was a subtle change in emphasis at Vatican II to one source, "Jesus Christ" (CCC#80); we will have more on this later. Defining the two modes, we have (CCC#81): "Sacred Scripture is the speech of God as it is put down in writing under the breath of the Holy Spirit." "Tradition transmits in its entirety the Word of God which has been entrusted to the apostles by Christ the Lord and the Holy Spirit." "Tradition" is not to be confused with small "t" theological, disciplinary, liturgical, or devotional "tradition" (CCC#83), which may be changed; capital "T" Tradition does not change. Next week we will have a word on the Role of the Magisterium in the two modes of transmission.
